Menlo Innovations Celebrates 5th Birthday With Bash, Expansion Announcement

ANN ARBOR – Menlo Innovations will celebrate its fifth anniversary Wednesday with a birthday bash at the Kerrytown Market and shops near the Ann Arbor Farmer's Market. The festivities will include a major announcement about Menlo's business expansion plans in downtown Ann Arbor.

“This is a very special time in the history of our company and coincides with what we believe is an exciting turning point in the redevelopment of our region's economy,” said CEO Rich Sheridan. “We see companies like Menlo Innovations and our recent new venture, The Accent Reduction Institute, playing an important role in the economic transformation of Michigan's economy.

The party is scheduled to start at 4 pm on the third floor of the Godfrey building in the Kerrytown Market. Menlo Innovations is a member of the Ann Arbor IT Zone.
